CLASSES

Baby Combo (Ages 18 months-2 years)

On the fast track to being a Broadway Baby! This 45 min class is an enchanting and delightful introduction to ballet and tap for 18 months- 2 year old children. Basic elements of ballet and tap are introduced through play and instruction using props. This is a magical way for children who love music and movement to channel that energy toward dance. NOTE: The only requirement for participation in Baby Combo is that the student will separate from the parent and follow the general loose structure of the class.

Tiny Combo (ages 3-4)

These dancers are tutu cute! This hour class is divided into 20 min sections of jazz, ballet, and tap. Students will learn the basic building blocks of ballet, tap and jazz in a nurturing and child friendly environment. Learning paired with games, activities and props make class more enjoyable and students are more excited to learn.

Mini Combo (ages 5-6)

Raising the barre... This hour class is divided into 30 min sections of jazz and ballet. Students build on the basic steps learned in Tiny Combo and move away from as many props and games. The barre is introduced and used for warm-ups in ballet. Students take a closer look at technique and begin learning more complex moves and combinations.

Acro

Acro is a style of dance that combines classical techniques with acrobatic elements. While all dance is physical, this form is particularly athletic and has unique choreography due to its use of acrobatics in a dance environment. Acro dance has many benefits for young dancers.
